Attack on Fort Snelling Boxing Shows by State Commission Shown Up by Matchmaker Gibbons

Secretary Spouts About How He is Going to Lick United States Army and Put War Department Out of Business—Talks as if He Was Mighty Power Instead of Only a Hired Man Employed to do Political Chores—Weeps Over Loss of Revenue to State, But Insiders Know Real Reasons for Trying to Stop Bouts at Fort—Threats to Boycott Boxers Who Appear at Snelling Don't Scare Anybody

BY MIKE GIBBONS

(Matchmaker for Fort Snelling Athletic Association)

WHILE ordinarily the sputterings and vaporings of the secretary of the Minnesota Boxing Commission should not be dignified by an answer, and should be ignored for the mess of "blah" that they are, his latest eruption as published in Twin Cities' newspapers contains some nasty insinuations which should not go unchallenged.

Mike Gibbons

This hireling holds his lackey's job with the commission, not because he is fitted for it by any knowledge of boxing either inside or outside the ring, but merely as a political favor from political officials whose mouthpiece he is and for whom he renders political services which do not or should not have any connection with his duties on the boxing commission.

In telling the world how he is going to lick the United States army and stop the Fort Snelling authorities from promoting boxing bouts, this high and mighty officious secretary seeks to interpret the war department regulations, under which the bouts will be conducted, to suit himself.

Of course, Col. Bjornstad, commandant at Fort Snelling, doesn't know his stuff or what the war department regulations are all about. The all-wise little secretary tells him what's what, however, as follows:

"The state boxing commission will protest any but true and honest enlistments in the military or naval services," proclaims the secretary. "The Minnesota commission does not believe the war department will stand for any professional boxers joining the National Guard or naval reserves simply to qualify them to box at Fort Snelling."

Since when has the state boxing commission had jurisdiction over the recruiting of men for the army or navy? Must the army and navy have the state boxing commission pass on the eligibility or the honesty of recruits before they can enlist them?

What is His Motive?

The secretary seems to be assuming clairvoyant or oracular powers in presuming to divine or judge the motives that actuate boxers who join the service. When it comes to motives, many boxing followers wonder just what motive is behind the attempts and threats of the secretary to stop boxing shows at Fort Snelling.

Is it to force the United States government to put its military reservation under the jurisdiction of the Minnesota Boxing Commission, or is it in the interest of the boxing commission's political pets?

The secretary sheds a few crocodile tears over the fact that "boxing shows at the fort would deprive the state tuberculosis fund of much needed revenue." This because the state will not collect 10 per cent tax from the Fort Snelling boxing shows.

COL. A. W. BJORNSTAD
Commandant at Fort Snelling

It is unusually kind of the secretary to thus admit that the efforts of professional boxers result in good for others, in view of the fact that his personal antagonism to professional boxers is well known to many of them. But the foregoing statement appears to imply a fear that the Fort Snelling shows are going to put out of business all the regular clubs whose shows contribute to the state tuberculosis fund.

Can the secretary tell the public how much of the money collected from boxers in fines and license fees went to the state tuberculosis fund? The secretary is careful not to mention that the Fort Snelling club is going to turn over a more generous percentage of its receipts to the state hospital for wounded and sick war veterans than the other clubs in the state give to the state tuberculosis fund.

The secretary also states that the shows at Fort Snelling are to be conducted by "professional promoters" and insinuates that these shows are for the benefit of professional promoters only. Are the army officers and the American Legion who are to stage the Fort Snelling bouts professional promoters? The aims and object of the Fort Snelling boxing shows were clearly defined by Col. Bjornstad in his recently published statement replying to the false claims of the secretary of the state boxing commission.

In another part of his published statements the secretary stresses the war department regulation requiring that "boxers who participate in bouts at army reservations must be of good reputations both as individuals and athletes." He doesn't make clear what he is driving at here, but in this connection the old maxim about heaving bricks while living in a glass house might be quoted.

Finally, he puts forth a threat that boxers who commit an "illegal act" by boxing for the Fort Snelling club will "pay dearly" in fines and national suspensions."

The legality of these shows has been established by the United States War Department, which, one would think, is a little bit higher in the organization of our government than the Minnesota Boxing Commission. If the Fort Snelling boxing shows are illegal then the War Department and the United States army are illegal in the eyes of the state boxing commission. If the boxing commission takes the action threatened against boxers it will be persecution and boycott which is illegal in itself and which will not get very far with fair and square boxing commissions in other states.

However, even the Minnesota Boxing Commission, all powerful as they pretend to be, cannot legally abridge the constitutional rights of an American citizen, though that citizen is a professional boxer, whom the commission regard as their natural prey.

Three World Championship Boxing Matches Will Be Staged in New York City Within Two Weeks

Two of champions defending titles should retain their crowns while the chances are good for a change of titleholders in other bout—Harry Greb is favorite to win middleweight crown from Johnny Wilson—Johnny Dundee will likely give Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard a stiff fight—Dempsey looks like a cinch against Firpo in heavyweight title battle.

By MIKE E. COLLINS
(Editor of The Boxing Blade)

JOHNNY WILSON will defend his world's middleweight title against Harry Greb at New York on Friday, August 31st.

Unless Greb has slipped, he should defeat Johnny most decisively. However, it should be a good contest to watch—Wilson with with his left-handed style and Harry's windmill system of right and left going all the time.

Mike Collins

Wilson is a better fighter than he is generally given credit for. His best battles were against Mike O'Dowd during the period that O'Dowd fought a ten-round draw with Greb. Of course that cannot be figured as a criterion of who should win between Greb and Wilson now, or any other time.

The Champion's first bout with Downey at Cleveland was all Wilson's up to the sixth round. Johnny cut Downey up and made him look like a very ordinary fighter during the first six rounds. Then Downey laid a hard right on Johnny's chin and down went the Champion. He took a nine count, got up only to be knocked down again. The referee claimed that when Wilson was getting up from the second knockdown Downey hit him when he had one knee on the floor and he awarded the decision to Wilson on a foul while Johnny was on the floor.

There was a big holler regarding the affair, the Cleveland Commission over-ruling the referee's decision giving Downey the bout on a K. O. However, the sporting fraternity of the world recognized the referee's decision as final—and right or wrong Johnny still retained his crown.

Wilson and Downey were rematched at Boyle's 30 Acres on Labor Day, 1921, by Tex Rickard, who promised Wilson $37,500 for his end. The show did not draw up to expectations. It was a terrible fight to look at, neither man showing anything that even resembled a close contender for the title, notwithstanding both were claiming the championship.

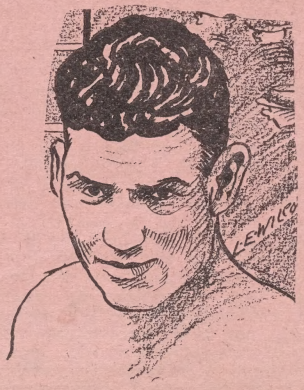
Rickard refused to pay Wilson until December and when he did pay him, he did it with the understanding that Wilson would sign up to box Harry Greb at the Garden, fifteen rounds to a decision. Wilson signed, as he needed the money he had coming from the Downey bout several months previous. After collecting he told Tex to go where it is hot. Rickard took the articles to the well known Muldoon, Commissioner, and Johnny was barred. Now the battle is on again.

Greb is not as good as he was in 1921. They say that his eyes have been bothering him, also his legs. Anyhow, unless Harry has gone back too far, he should win almost every round and the championship from Wilson.

* * *

Johnny Dundee and Benny Leonard, two world champions, will clash for the lightweight title, fifteen rounds to a decision at the New York Yankee's Park, Sept. 5th. This will be the ninth time they have boxed. All other bouts were no-decision affairs.

Leonard will be about a 2 to 1 shot over Dundee. However, it is no cinch bet. If the bounding Italian is right that night he will make Benny extend himself to the limit to hold his crown. Johnny's jumping jack tactics will bother any boxer. He is a great boxer and game as anyone that ever entered a ring which gives him a chance to outpoint Leonard. On the other hand, Leonard has the advantage in weight, is a deadly puncher, a resourceful boxer and a smart, game fighter. It is possible that the advantage in weight will not help Leonard. If he makes 135 he will be weakened some, possibly enough to offset what he will outweigh Dundee. Johnny will come in strong at about 133, Benny weak at 135.



CHAMPION JACK DEMPSEY

CHAMPION BENNY LEONARD

It will be a dandy contest. Leonard should win the decision, but not by any wide margin.

* * *

Dempsey is working hard at White Sulphur Springs, New York, for his bout with Luis Angel Firpo, set for Sept. 14 in New York City. Firpo may give Jack a fight but it is the opinion of experts who claim to be on the inside that Firpo will only last a few rounds at the outside. However, any big hard slugger always has a chance to put over a winning punch.

The one big drawback attributed to Firpo is that he cannot box, simply because he doesn't know how. He undoubtedly can hit with his right hand, but he might as well have his left in his pocket or cut off, for all the use he makes of it in the ring.

Jack Dempsey is known to be both a great boxer and a knockout puncher. He is smart in battle and knows just what to do in an emergency. His bout with Tom Gibbons for 15 rounds proves to the world that Jack can box when he has to. He is all champion and Firpo will discover same shortly after the bell rings in the first round. Briefly, the champion should win in a walk. No one yet ever won the heavyweight championship who did not know how to box.

Tom Andrews' Timely Ring Gossip

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—There is no doubt that the big purses which have been hung up in the East for boxing matches is having a bad effect on the game throughout the country. The result has been to bring it into politics in some places, which in itself is a bad thing for boxing, and to start the agitators going in other spots. Then, too, it has given the boxers false ideas as to their worth as attractions with the result that promoters outside of the big centers like New York and Philadelphia are fortunate to even get by without big losses.

Tom S. Andrews

The "money mad" idea has also hit the boxing game in England and the big sporting papers there have taken up the matter for discussion. The London Sporting Life in an editorial says "Whether the offer of $500,000 for a Dempsey-Firpo match is correct or not we do not know. It may be another means of seeking cheap advertising, although James Coffroth is known as a high class sporting man. If such is the case then the promoters should get together and put the purse down where it belongs. That would be the sensible thing to do. But it would be more sensible and a better thing for boxing everywhere if a Federal law were passed whereby the size of the purses as well as admission fees were restricted to reasonable limits throughout the States. The noise of the big purses has led many of our boxers to become dissatisfied, and try their fortunes in the States. Not many of them have made good financially, though they gained in experience. They are usually wiser when they return, but lacking the expected fortunes. This money madness on the part of boxers and managers will do the game much harm. It should be stamped out."

The London writer hits the nail on the head in his article regarding big purses and its effect on the game. Already there is quiet agitation going on in various parts of the country against the sport, and the unheard of purses is what has started all this talk. In New York the politicians have taken a hand in the game and that may mean a smashup at any time, despite all the talk about the Legion being back of the sport, etc. It was politics that killed the game in the Empire state twice previously and it looks as though it might happen again.

* * *

The outdoor season for boxing in the east will soon be over and then it will have a rest for a while, but every effort is being made by the promoters to rush through a few big matches before the grand finale comes. There are two big events—Dempsey and Firpo and Wills and Dempsey. It would be taking a chance with Dempsey and Wills going on first, but everyone seems to be convinced that Jack would annihilate Firpo without much trouble and then he would be sure of the Wills match following. From a financial standpoint that is the correct way to figure it.

Should Firpo be permitted to engage in a few more exhibitions he might succeed in ruining the show with Dempsey, as his work against Homer Smith and Joe Downey was nothing to brag about, although with the latter Luis had to use sixteen-ounce gloves, and at that Downey was given a severe beating. The majority of critics and fans think Firpo an easy mark for the champion.

* * *

In the meantime Harry Wills is still chasing that rainbow with Paddy Mullins. The latter has offered to post $50,000 as a forfeit to stage the match at the baseball park in Brooklyn. Paddy has the backers and the men to promote the match, but it looks as though Tex Rickard has the bout "tied in a bag" and ready for the Polo Grounds or the big Arena in Jersey. Manager Jack Kearns wants a forfeit of $250,000 posted as a guarantee of good faith. Jack should have made it 250,000 German marks!

* * *

Heavyweights are in great demand these days! Of course, the men chasing after these heavies want prospects of a little class, but if they have the physical attributes they are entitled to a trial at least. It is not a case of what they know about the boxing game—but how big and strong. Recently Tex O'Rourke, who is connected with the National Boxing association, went to England for the purpose of trying to find a big fellow whom he could develop to meet Champion Dempsey. After a great deal of traveling around England, Scotland and Ireland Tex came to the conclusion that there were no "prospects" over there worth having. He is not the first one to make that discovery. Jack McAuliffe, former champion lightweight of the world, tried the same thing and failed. So did Tommy Burns, ex-champion heavyweight of the world.

Now comes Gene Malady, the Omaha sporting man, who discovered Earl Caddock, ex-champion wrestler of the world, with the announcement that he has found a heavyweight whom he feels sure will develop into a real champion—one who will be able to take the title away from Mr. Dempsey. The heavyweight in question was not picked up in the northern woods, nor in the coal mines, but is an educated young man. His name is Big Munn—a graduate of the Nebraska State University, a leading football star on the Nebraska University team, also a crack handball and basket ball player and a sprinter who can do 100 yards in 12 seconds flat. In fighting condition Munn weighs just 260 pounds, which is about what Jess Willard scaled when he fought Luis Firpo.

"This fellow is the greatest prospect I ever saw," said Gene Melady. "He has done considerable amateur boxing, is a highly educated fellow and has a fine personality. When Jess made his tour and stopped off in Omaha, offering $500 to any one who would stay four rounds with him, this young fellow accepted the defi for Sioux City, but Big Jess kindly informed him that he had made arrangements for Mr. Drake, his sparring partner. Munn is a real American and after seeing Firpo box Homer Smith recently remarked: 'If I can't beat that Spaniard I don't want a penny for my services.' Just watch him and see where he lands!"

* * *

Failure to keep in condition cost Pinky Mitchell, junior welterweight champion, a nice piece of coin at New Orleans. Pinky had been matched by his brother-manager, Billy Mitchell, to meet Basil Gagliano, the southern junior welterweight, in a championship match at 140 pounds, August 24, but when Pinky was notified of the same he told Bill that he could not get in proper shape in that time and besides he had hurt his ankle while hiking through the woods and could not stand the strain of training. That little misstep cost Pinky $5,000, as Mel Coogan was selected to take his place against the New Orleans Italian. There was also some dispute over the selection of a referee, Mitchell wanting Dick Burke to officiate. The latter was unable to accept as he is a member of the boxing commission and under the law could not act. A postponement was asked for and granted and it is likely that the two boys will be brought together some time in September. Judge A. J. Hedding of Milwaukee, who is a member of the committee having charge of the junior welter championship belt, has notified Mitchell that he must defend his title within the specified time of six months or forfeit the belt and championship. Gagliano has been a challenger for the title ever since it was awarded to Mitchell. Johnny Clinton, Tommy O'Brien, Sid Barberian, Mel Coogan, Johnny Mendelsohn, John Shaner and Bobby Green are also challengers for the crown.

Breezy Broadway Boxing Bits

By Arthur T. Lumley

WHAT a great boxing promoter old P. T. Barnum would have made.

* * *

How that great circus mogul would have outclassed all the present fistic promoters.

* * *

A. T. Lumley

With his humbug tricks and his false bombastic ballyhooing.

* * *

Barnum always played to the sucker public and made them like it.

* * *

But there was always considerable comedy in Barnum's bunks.

* * *

He invariably made the suckers laugh at their own folly.

* * *

Barnum, however, never made a boob pay $50 for a $5 seat.

* * *

That would have been too serious a joke for even the old showman to pull off.

* * *

The Dempsey-Firpo extravaganza promises to be a regular circus show.

* * *

With all the hullabaloo and hysterical bamboozling press work.

* * *

It will undoubtedly be a sell out from present indications.

* * *

That means the gate will run up to $1,200,000.

* * *

Not counting what will be made by the ticket speculating clique.

* * *

Wouldn't be surprised if the suckers will pay $50 or more for choice ringside seats.

* * *

No wonder the hungry political leaders are breaking into the boxing game.

* * *

They have an hallucination that there's millions in it.

* * *

That's what Charley Stoneham imagined before he dropped about $150,000 in two shows at the Polo Grounds.

* * *

Now he expects to earn all that back and much more besides by his combination with Rickard.

* * *

Maybe Stoneham might if it was summer here all the year round.

* * *

But in a couple of months the open air clubs will be through.

And then the Garden will bloom forth as the big fistic money getter.

* * *

The Greb-Wilson bout will be far more interesting than the Dempsey-Firpo slaughter.

* * *

But the bloodthirsty fans prefer to witness the big Argentine bull slaughtered.

* * *

It's strange indeed how many there are who imagine that Firpo will win.

* * *

But the Broadway sharp shooters are offering all of big odds on Dempsey.

* * *

The principal betting is on the number of rounds the fight will go.

* * *

That will all depend how dangerous or soft Firpo may be for the champion.

* * *

If Dempsey finds the Senor Bull dangerous he'll probably try and knock him off as quickly as possible.

* * *

Scotty Monteith will be Firpo's principal second in the big muss.

* * *

Scotty is trying hard to learn to speak Spanish for the auspicious occasion.

* * *

Monteith declares Firpo understands and speaks more English than he pretends to know.

* * *

Anyway, the crafty Bull is an expert when it comes to counting American money.

* * *

The profound commission spends its time suspending and reinstating managers and boxers.

* * *

It seems to be the only way this board has of showing their authority.

* * *

When it comes to an important matter like the Dempsey-Wills proposition the commission falls into a trance.

* * *

Paddy Mullins, the faithful manager of the Brown Panther, is utterly disgusted trying to get some satisfactory action from Muldoon regarding a Dempsey-Wills match.

* * *

Mullins has been spoofed, bulled and stalled along for two long and weary years.

* * *

And now it looks as if Harry Wills is sidetracked for at least another year.

* * *

Benny Leonard much prefers to box in the summer time.

* * *

While Jack Britton and others will only conflict in the cool weather.

Leonard is going on the stage again this winter and will not be seen in ring action during the frosty months.

* * *

A certain Brooklyn manager touted a lot of wealthy truckmen to bet on Willard and got his percentage of the spoils.

* * *

Some of the suspended managers and boxers are obliged to disguise themselves to gain admittance to a fight show.

* * *

Eddie Mead disguised as a farmer attended a recent one unrecognized.

* * *

Sol Solowitz, the able boxing promoter of Panama, has spent a couple of weeks on Broadway hustling for attractive bouts.

* * *

Very few of the supposed wise Broadway managers have any real horse sense.

* * *

Or they wouldn't blow their bankrolls on the ponies so frequently.

* * *

No tidings as yet from Tex O'Rourke who went to England many moons ago to find a new heavyweight champion.

* * *

He's probably giving George the Fifth a few private boxing lessons and has been crowned a duke or something.

* * *

Manager John O'Brien has a great little flyweight in Lew Perfetti, so the Broadway experts say.

* * *

Joe Jacobs is down to flyweight poundage hustling for his champion, Mike McTigue.

* * *

Alongside of Joe Woodman, he looks like a Jersey skeeter.

* * *

The favorite bell of the commercialized boxer is the clang of the cash register.

* * *

Jack Moore says the divers should wear bathing suits instead of fighting trunks in the rings.

* * *

Johnny Dundee claims to have fought 567 battles before he became the world's flyweight champion.

* * *

The further back they sit in church the closer up they sit at the ringside.

* * *

When a fighter goes to seed they generally plant him with a K. O.

* * *

Georgie Ward is still spoiling for a return match with Mickey Walker.

* * *

But the welterweight champion can find far more softer opponents than Georgie.

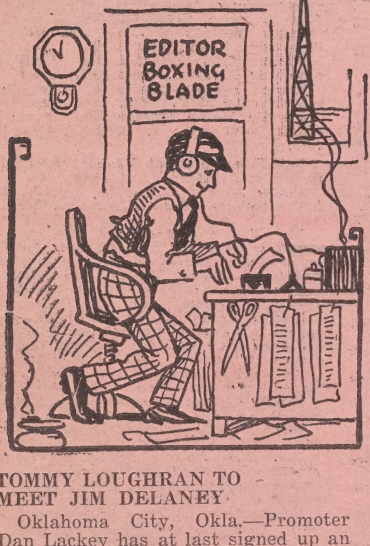
BOXING NEWS



TOMMY LOUGHRAN TO MEET JIM DELANEY

Oklahoma City, Okla.—Promoter Dan Lackey has at last signed up an opponent that will give the St. Paul flash, Jim Delaney, a fight. Tommy Loughran of Philadelphia is the man who will step 12 rounds or less at the Baseball Park Arena on Oct. 14th. Delaney is a prime favorite in Oklahoma City. Many think him the only opponent left that has a chance with Jack Dempsey. Loughran, having defeated Harry Greb, Mike McTigue and many other topnotchers, makes an admirable opponent for Delaney—and Oklahoma City should see a real battle.

BOXING GAME BOOMS ALONG MEXICAN BORDER

El Paso, Tex.—Boxing attendance is getting better and better at El Paso and across the line at Juarez, Mexico. The bout between old Sam Langford and Clem Johnson was a sell-out, over 5,000 attending. An authority tells us that a good boxing show any place in Mexico now will outdraw a bull fight. Jim Erwin, promoter of the bull ring at Juarez, is angling for a Dave Shade and Ray Long bout for September 7th. Should he land the match, he will have another sell-out.

JIM DELANEY WILL MEET CHUCK WIGGINS AT FT. SNELLING

The Fort Snelling Athletic association will stage their opening card at the Fort arena on Tuesday evening, August 28th. Matchmaker Mike Gibbons has lined up the following bouts:

Another four-round bout will be carded.

MIDGET SMITH KNOCKS OUT EDDIE COULON

LEO FLYNN
Prominent New York Manager who pilots big stable of fighters.

ILLNESS FORCES MANAGER AL LIPPE TO RETIRE

Al Lippe, New York fight manager, who has been on the sick list for the past several months has been ordered by his physician to seek a spot for complete rest. Consequently Al has retired from the boxing game and has turned over his complete stable to Jimmie Bronson and Lou Brown.

Bronson and Brown, in addition to their own string of fighters, have taken over, and will manage and direct the future activities of Jeff Smith, Terry McHugh, Johnny Leonard, and K. O. Loughlin.

In addition to this quartet of boxers Messrs. Bronson and Brown have Bob Martin, A. E. F. Heavyweight Champion; Eddie Burnbrook, U. S. Army Welterweight Champion; Jack Zivic, lightweight; Bobby Garcia, Joe Ryan, and Pete Zivic.

The boxing game and its followers will regret the retirement of Lippe. For the past ten years, Al has been one of the leading managers of the country, a grand fellow, personally, a first class boxing manager, and a credit to the boxing game. It is hoped that Mr. Lippe will speedily recover from his present illness and again enter the boxing business.

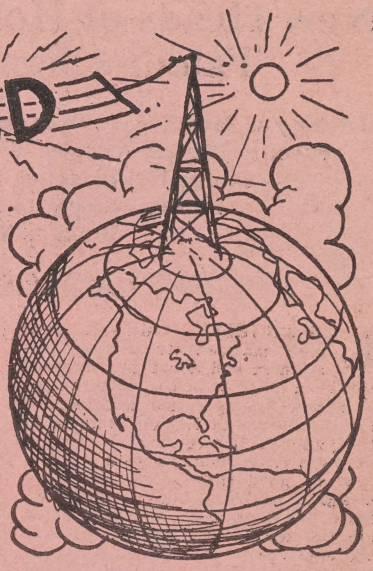
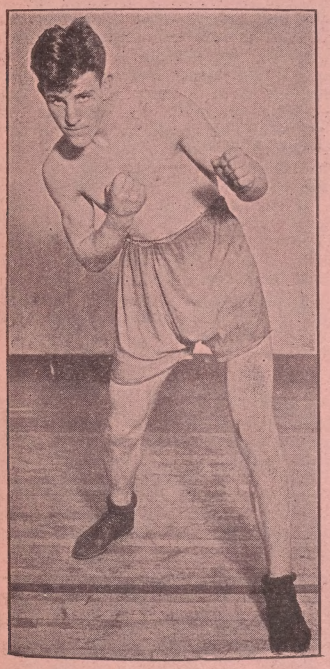
OF THE WORLD



GUNNER QUINN WINS FROM MARK MOORE ON FOUL

Moose Jaw, Can.—Gunner Joe Quinn won from Mark Moore on a foul in the seventh round of a scheduled ten-round bout here, Aug. 17th. The bout was one of the hardest contested battles ever staged in these parts. Both men stood toe to toe and slugged to the finish. The foul was declared unintentional—Moore was trying a left hook to the body, missed and hit Quinn in the groin. The promoters are trying to sign them right back for the next show.



DAVE SHADE
Leo Flynn's welter star who has tried in vain so far to get Champion Mickey Walker in the ring with him.

KID BUCK KAYOS BILLY KNOWLES

Kid Buck, Battle Creek bantam, knocked out Billy Knowles in two rounds at Camp Custer, Mich., Aug. 14th. Buck knocked Knowles down for the nine count in the first round, the gong saving him. In the second he hit the canvas for the full count. Kid Buck looks like one of the best bantams developed in Michigan for some time.

JOHNNY SCHAUER AND BOBBY GREEN FIGHT DRAW

Johnny Schauer of St. Paul knocked Bobby Green for the count of nine in the first round of their scheduled ten-round bout at Superior, Wis., Aug. 15th. The bout was a hummer to the finish and was called a draw by a majority of the ringside critics. Schauer figured he won because of the nine count knock-down but a draw was a fair decision.

EARL BLUE, ST. PAUL FIGHTER, SECOND STANLEY KETCHELL

Earl Blue, St. Paul middleweight, has developed into a second Stanley Ketchell. He has a string of twelve straight knockouts to his credit. None of his opponents were topnotchers but all were tough—and it is the way that Blue does it is that is creating a sensation. Either hand means a K. O. and his punches that deliver the sleeping potion do not travel over three or four inches. He is only 20 years old—but—watch him! He looks like the real article.

HARRY KAHN BEATS JOHNNY LAVAN

* * *

MIKE DUNDEE WINS OVER ERNIE GOOZEMANN

Mike Dundee, one of the leading candidates for Johnny Dundee's featherweight crown, gave Ernie Goozeman a decisive beating at Milwaukee, August 14th. Dundee took six rounds by a decisive margin, two went to Goozeman and two were even. Tom Andrews promoted the show. The receipts were slightly over $4,000.

* * *

RAY PRYEL BEATS JOHNNY WILLIAMS

New York City—Ray Pryel, the sensational Pittsburgh lightweight, added another victory to his list when he defeated Johnny Williams of New York at the Commonwealth Sporting Club on August 18. Pryel was the aggressor throughout, and his speed, cleverness and hard hitting proved too much for Williams. Williams is the lad who recently held Charlie White to a draw in Chicago, and also boxed Tim Droney on even terms in Long Island City.

KID ROY WON NEWSPAPER DECISION OVER JOEY FOX

Kid Roy, Quebec featherweight, won a newspaper decision over Joey Fox at Montreal on August 15th. The story went out that Roy won a referee's decision over Fox, giving Roy the featherweight championship of the British Empire. The same is wrong, as the bout was a no-decision affair.

JOHN L. MAKES GIFT TO FIGHTER HE KNOCKED OUT INSIDE LIMIT

Shortly after John L. Sullivan entered the boxing game, he was given a benefit at Harry Hill's famous resort in New York. Speeches and toasts were in order. John L. got enthused and offered to give $50 to any one who would stand before him for four rounds. This novel proposition created quite a sensation in the sporting circles.

Steve Taylor, the heavyweight pugilist who trained Paddy Ryan when he fought Joe Goss for the title, agreed to face the music. John L. knocked out Taylor in the second. Much elated with his success, Sullivan presented Taylor with $25.

New Heads of Hollywood Stadium to Give New Talent Chance to Box at Movie Colony Arena

Matching of Same Boxers Over and Over and Refusal to Let Outsiders Break in Results in Ousting of Favorite Playing Regime—Walter Long, New Manager, Appoints Tom Kennedy Matchmaker —George Walsh, Motion Picture Star, Plans Another Club to Cater to High Class Patrons—Hopes to Develop Heavyweight Champion Who Has Educated Brain as Well as Boxing Science and Knockout Punch

(BY BOXING BLADE SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT)

LOS ANGELES, Calif.—A complete change in the boxing situation in and about Los Angeles has been made with the appointment of a new manager and matchmaker for the American Legion Stadium in Hollywood. The giving of boxing shows in Hollywood is a good proposition, so good that most any card means a sold out house. However, there has been much disapproval of the matching of the same boys over and over again. The Executive Committee of the Hollywood Post ordered the manager to secure a new man. This he refused to do, and handed in his resignation, which was accepted.

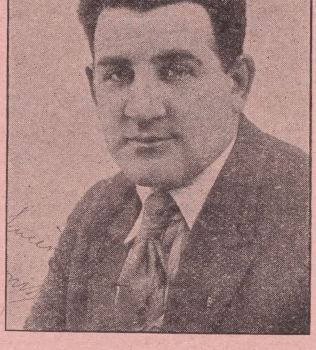
New arrangements and improvements have given a larger seating capacity to the Stadium. At the first show, under the new management, a benefit for crippled children, netted the nice sum of $15,000.

The new manager is Walter Long, a very popular man with the actors and screen people here, and he is taking hold in a commendable way. He has no axes to grind, and no complaints to make of the past, but he insists that in the future both patrons and boxers will get a square deal. He has appointed Tom Kennedy, the old amateur champion heavyweight, and who scored some success as a professional, to be matchmaker, with the instructions to play no favorites and to introduce new talent. This word has gone forth and means that boxers who could not get a match here in the past will now be induced to come here and show if they can fight. If they can fight, and fight four rounds well, there will be plenty of work for the right ones.

Room for Another Club

With the marvelous growth of Hollywood, and it still is increasing, it is a fact that another good boxing club could be made go here. With this in view, George Walsh who is considered the most perfect man physically in the moving picture colony, has been contemplating starting a club on lines laid down by himself. It is not widely known that Walsh came very near to being a professional fighter, and it was planned to take him to France to fight Carpentier. Something intervened and the prize ring lost a possible heavyweight champion, but the Cinema game was the gainer.

George Walsh gives as strict attention to physical development and training as he does to dressing, and it is agreed that he is the Beau Brummel of the screen world. He has long had a desire to start a club in which boxing would be the principal attraction. He has hopes of finding and developing some man or men of higher intelligence than is generally found among the present boxers of today. He says that if he can get men of education, proven intelligence and needed physical makeup to take an active interest in ring fighting, then he will be able to introduce real class among the professional fighters. Men of intelligence and education have always proved that they possess courage even if aggressiveness is lacking.



TOM KENNEDY
Former Amateur Heavyweight Champion who has been appointed new matchmaker of the Hollywood Stadium at Los Angeles, Calif.

"Needed aggressiveness will come," says Walsh, "if the proper interest and liking for boxing and fighting is in a man, and I know from my own experience that there are many men who are considered gentlemen, and who have a liking for boxing and strenuous athletics who would make champions, if they had an active interest in the game.

Will Be Private Club

"My idea is to have a club built in amphitheater style, which will accommodate a few thousand persons. The club will be a private one of limited membership, with the privilege of inviting friends. We will have as many women members as wish to join, and I will personally attend to the training and physical wants of members. I really believe that with my new plan I will be able to find a man or two who might attain fame in professional boxing.

"The intention is to make the club the best of its kind in this country. It will be laid out and conducted on my own original plans. The club will be a select affair and I am hopeful of having such a man and worldwide athletic celebrity as Douglas Fairbanks as the president. We have two locations in view, both of them in the heart of Hollywood, and at future meetings the full plans will be made.

If the project as intended by Walsh goes through, the club will be the scene of many glove duels between men of wide reputation, for the club will be heavily financed. The representative men who now are regular patrons of the boxing meets in the Hollywood Stadium, can figure their fortunes in the millions.

Boxers from the East keep coming in, and Jimmy O'Hagen, of Albany, who begged for a match and was only given one by reason of a principal being unable to go on, won the Pacific Coast middleweight championship from Bert Colima. If there is a middleweight around who can trim either O'Hagen or Colima in four rounds this is a good spot for him.

JACK BULGER, who manages Mickey Walker, asks $150,000 for Walker to box Benny Leonard.

* * *

Jack Bulger must have had a talk with Jack Kearns.

* * *

Tex Rickard says that Firpo is the best kind of an opponent for Dempsey and that the wild gent from South America has fought everyone that the promoters have asked him to.

* * *

Yes, we have no opponents today.

* * *

We were under the impression that Firpo recently has been boxing only the kind Bill McCarney dug up for him.

* * *

McCarney can sure dig up the right kind.

* * *

On Sept. 15th all Argentine will sing—"We have no Firpo tonight, he has gone from our city and oh what a pity—we have no Wild Bull tonight."

Radio—"Who comes there and what's that?" "Why, Jack Dempsey has knocked him into a Cocked Hat."

* * *

"Now we will all sing that pretty melody, Rave on Red Raven, you shall not split tonight."

* * *

Harry Wills is still wondering what it is all about.

* * *

Los Angeles now has five big boxing clubs. Four rounds is the limit at Los—but the promoters manage to get about ten rounds of fighting out it is all about.

* * *

Fighters all say that the way they must step in Los Angeles, four rounds is the limit.

* * *

On Sept. 5th Benny Leonard and Johnny Dundee will meet in the ring for the ninth time.

A Secretary of a Boxing Commission who draws no salary, has no money and makes trips to Washington, D. C., and other boxing points, at his own expense as he says, is quite remindful of the girl who worked in a department store for $9.00 a week and pays $25.00 per week for her room.

Think It Over

By Robert J. Sargent
(World War Veteran)

(From a Letter Written to The Boxing Blade)

THE Secretary of the Minnesota Boxing Commission is all het up—he discovered that the United States army is a bigger man than he is, Gunga Din.

* * *

We wonder where the Secretary was during the World War—and what did he ever do for the country he lives in besides hold a petty political job.

* * *

And now he wants to handle the army's business. Again where was he in 1917 and 1918 when boys by the thousands daily were giving up their lives for their country?

* * *

Thousands of them are now lying in hospitals and there are thousands more sick and wounded with no hospitals or comforts yet available for them—they must suffer on.

* * *

And this political hireling has the nerve and audacity to try to interfere with an enterprise that would help the poor fellows who sacrificed their all for the Stars and Stripes.

* * *

The Fort Snelling boxing shows will assist in building a State Hospital for the wounded war veterans and this political hireling says, No! the Boxing Commission must get in on it first. He as much as says "We, Us—We two or three petty politicians are bigger than the U. S. Army, and unless we are in as usual, the U. S. Army is out and the wounded soldiers can suffer on." These political gents claim they belong to the machine. Is it any wonder that Magnus Johnson was elected to the U. S. Senate from this State by 94,000 plurality?

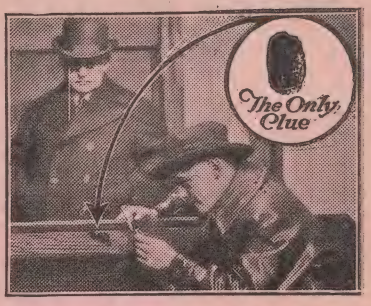
Think it over.



$500 REWARD for TWO HOURS WORK

In answer to a request from Chief of Police, Warren Biglow, the Finger Print Expert arrived at the scene of the daring robbery of the O—— Company offices. $6500.00 in currency was gone. Not a single clue had been found.

Almost immediately Biglow turned his attention to a table which had been tipped up. The glossy mahogany showed an excellent set of finger prints. The thief might just as well have left his calling card.

To make a long story short, his prints were photographed, and matched with those of "Big Joe" Moran, a safe blower. Moran was caught and convicted on Biglow's finger print proof. The money was recovered and a $500.00 reward given to Biglow, in addition to his fees—as pay for his two hour's work.

Sammy Mandell Goes to Top of Contenders for the Featherweight Title in Boxing Blade Contest

Flood of Votes from Admirers of Popular Chicago Boxer Sweep Him By All Entries for Johnny Dundee's Crown—Gets 5,100 in Six Days and Looks Like Sure Winner—Tiger Flowers Gains at Rapid Pace in Votes for Light Heavyweight Title Contender — Sailor Friedman Jumps Into First Place Among Entries for Crack at Pinkey Mitchell's 140-Pound Belt

SAMMY MANDELL, popular Chicago and Rockford, Illinois, featherweight title contender swept by every entry in the featherweight division last week, landing at the top with a vote of 5,800 and receiving 5,100 of those votes during the last six days. He received more votes than any other two in the whole contest. Sammy is a popular candidate and although he has some hard competitors everything looks like he will be leading the list at the finish. The past week he jumped from the seventh place into first. Andy Chaney is second with 3,200, Mike Dundee third with 3,100 and Stuart McLean fourth with 2,500. There are 26 entries in the featherweight division. All of the last 22 have votes ranging from 100 to 1,500.

Harry Wills is still the leading opponent for Jack Dempsey's heavyweight title. Harry is leading all the heavyweights with 8,800 votes to his credit. Tom Gibbons is second with 5,100, Luis Firpo a poor third wth 2,000 and Jack Renault and Tiny Jim Herman are a tie for fourth place.

Thirteen L. H. Contenders

Mike McTigue, light heavyweight champion, has thirteen contenders now entered in the contest. Tom Gibbons is holding 6,800 votes as first. Tiger Flowers, colored, is second with 6,300. Flowers has been coming along in rapid style the past two weeks if he continues to get the drag of votes he has in the last fifteen days, he is sure to head the list as the leading candidate for the light heavyweight honors. By the way the Tiger is a real fighter and would make a real contender for Mike McTigue's crown. Gene Tunney is third in the race with 2,600, Jim Delaney fourth with 2,500 and Harry Greb is fifth with 2,200.

Harry Greb is first for the middleweight honors, holding 4,800. Jeff Smith is second with 4,500, Jock Malone third with 2,900 and Jack Reddick, the Canadian champion, is fourth with 1,900.

Billy Wells, the English champion, still holds first position for welterweight honors. Wells has 4,100 votes, Dave Shade is second with 3,300 and Tillie Kid Herman third with 1,600. Altogether there are 23 in the welterweight race. The balance are holding from 100 to 1,300 each.

Sailor Friedman of Chicago has jumped from 3rd place to the first position with 3,300 as leading contender for Pinky Mitchell's 140-pound title. Eddy Fitzsimmons of New York is second with 3,200, Basil Galiano is third with 2,700, Johnny Tillman fourth with 2,100 and Sid Barbarian fifth with 1,500. There are 28 entries in the race for the Junior welterweight title, in fact, more candidates than in any other division.

Rocky Kansas Still Leads

For Benny Leonard's crown, Rocky Kansas still holds first call with 3,800,

TIGER FLOWERS
Atlanta, Ga., Negro Light Heavyweight.

Charley White second with 3,100, Lew Tendler third with 2,700 and Johnny O'Donnell, the St. Paul star, fourth with 1,500.

For bantamweight honors, Carl Tremaine again jumps into first place held last week by the popular Pal Moore. Tremaine has 3,900, Pal Moore 3,400, Joe Burman 2,700, Midget Smith 900, Bobby Wolgast 800, and Kid Williams, Young Montreal, Pete Zivic and Connie Currey are all four a tie for the sixth place.

There seems to be little interest in who is the best opponent for Pancho Villa. Bud Taylor is leading the bunch with 1,900, Bobby Wolgast is second with 700, Joe Grimm and Johnny Buff are a tie for the third place each holding 600. Frankie Genaro has been getting the most votes sent in for this title, but Genaro, already being a champion, cuts him out as a contestant.

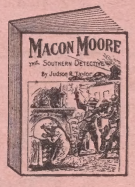
THE SOUTHERN DETECTIVE



Here is another rattling good book that we unhesitatingly recommend to every one who enjoys a thrilling detective story. Each chapter contains a startling episode in the attempt of Macon Moore to run to earth a gang of moonshiners in Southern Georgia, whose business was that of manufacturing illicit whisky.

His capture by the "Night Riders," and his daring escape from them at their meeting in the Valley of Death, forms one of the many exciting incidents of the story.

One of our readers writes to us as follows:

"I was absolutely unable to stop reading 'Macon Moore' until I had finished it. I expected to read for an hour or so, but the situations were so dramatic and exciting at the end of each chapter, that before I knew it I had started the next one. I have read it three times, once while practicing exercises on the piano, and shall read it again. It is a corker."

The book contains 250 pages, is bound in paper covers, and will be sent to any address by mail, postpaid, upon receipt of 25 cents. Address all orders to
